

COURT GRANTS RIGHT OF BAIL

Convicted Dynamite Conspirators May Gain Freedom.

BASIS IS $10,000 PER YEAR

Federal Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago Grants Writ of Superseas to Thirty-two Men in Leavenworth Prison—Court Intimates Undue Haste Was Manifested in Committing Prisoners to Penitentiary.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Bonds aggregating $1,000,000 must be given if the thirty-two of the thirty-three labor leaders convicted of conspiracy to transport dynamite are to take advantage of the granting of a writ of superseas by the United States circuit court of appeals in this city.

Whether this sum can be obtained was admitted by counsel for the defendants to be a matter of grave doubt, but they expressed the belief that at least some of it could be obtained, enough to accomplish the liberty of President Frank M. Ryan and a few others until a decision has been reached on an appeal, for the filing of which the court allowed sixty days. The decision involves only thirty-two of the thirty-three men now in the Leavenworth penitentiary, as Herbert S. Hockin, designated among his fellow prisoners as the "informant," will not appeal.

Judges Baker and Saaman heard the arguments and the decision was given orally by Judge Baker. He took occasion to intimate that undue haste was manifested in Indianapolis in committing the defendants to prison.

Defense Scores Point.

The writ was issued largely on the point raised by the defense that the ironworkers were convicted of a continuing offense—a conspiracy to commit offenses continually.

In fixing the amount of bail the court was influenced by the fact that the offenses involved are not extraditable. Judge Anderson, who presided over the trial court at Indianapolis, was authorized to pass on the suitability and adequacy of any bonds offered.

District Attorney Miller of Indianapolis, who represented the government in the proceedings, stated that the bonds of surety companies probably would be acceptable, but that the surety must schedule in property twice the amount of the bond.

A basis of $10,000 for each year's sentence was used by the court in fixing the amount of the bonds. As Ryan was sentenced to serve seven years his bond was fixed at $70,000 and the same ratio was preserved throughout for the other convicted men.

Judge Baker said in commenting on the errors alleged by the defense against the trial court:

Discuss Alleged Errors.

"In this case the writ of error is an absolute right; a writ of superseas is not an absolute right. It has been the practice of federal criminal prosecution, however, to allow writs of superseas so as to release prisoners on bail until the case is finally decided on review.

"While the judgment of the trial court presumably is correct, yet there is a possibility of substantial error—error so great that a conviction should not be sustained.

"For that reason defendants should not be subjected to the ignominy of incarceration while their cases are being reviewed and writs of superseas should issue when it is shown that they are asked for in good faith and not on frivolous grounds or merely to delay the progress of justice.

"The chief error assigned in this case is that the defendants were tried on the theory of a continuing conspiracy. As far as we have been able to learn there is no decision which definitely considers this point. It is a matter to be determined by reasoning and analogy to precedent.

"The question as to whether the defendants should have been tried for conspiracy in connection with one offense has not been definitely adjudicated and there are possible grounds for difference of opinion. In such circumstances it is the ordinary and customary practice to admit the defendants to bail."

RAIL WILL BE FURNISHED

Convicted Dynamiters May Soon Be at Liberty.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—More than $500,000 has been pledged in Chicago to furnish bond for the convicted men, according to P. H. O'Donnell, attorney for the imprisoned labor officials. No difficulty will be found in raising bonds to free all the men, he asserted. "Individual security will be furnished in each instance," he said. "The men will be at liberty in three weeks at the outside."

"Chicago will take care of its own men and about fifteen others. Milwaukee and Minneapolis will raise the bonds for the two men who live in those cities. Peoria labor officials have notified us that they will take care of their men and San Francisco will furnish bonds for the men who live on the coast."

ROCKEFELLER IN FAILING HEALTH

Agrees to Accept the Subpoena Through His Counsel.

WHEREABOUTS KEPT SECRET

Samuel Untermyer, Counsel for House Money Probs Committee, Makes Announcement—William Rockefeller's Condition Is Such That It Will Be Impossible for Him to Appear as a Witness and He May Be Exeused.

New York, Jan. 4.—William Rockefeller has agreed through his counsel, John A. Garver, to accept service of a subpoena to appear on Jan. 13 before the Pujos committee of the house of representatives at Washington investigating the "money trust," according to announcement made at the office of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee. Mr. Untermyer, in behalf of the committee, it was stated, has by the direction of Chairman Pujos accepted this offer.

No intimation of the whereabouts of Mr. Rockefeller was contained in the statement.

As a result of the agreement the sergeant-at-arms of the house has been instructed to discontinue his efforts to effect service on William Rockefeller.

While accepting service, the statement avers, Mr. Garver advised Mr. Untermyer that Mr. Rockefeller's condition of health is precarious and that it will be impossible for him to appear as a witness at Washington or even to submit to examination at his home.

Committee May Accept Excuse.

Mr. Rockefeller has been informed that, having now submitted to the jurisdiction of the committee, he must present his excuses to the committee in due form for such action as it may deem proper. If it is established to the satisfaction of the committee that it will be impossible to obtain the testimony of Mr. Rockefeller without imperiling his life, the statement says, the committee would, of course, not feel justified in taking any such extreme action.

Mr. Garver, at his home, confirmed the announcement that he had accepted service in behalf of Mr. Rockefeller. In answer to questions he said this, in effect, was the same as though Mr. Rockefeller had been personally served. He did not care to state, he said, where Mr. Rockefeller is at present.

The announcement of Mr. Rockefeller's decision to accept service was made after Sergeant-Arms Riddell of the house of representatives made a formal demand at Mr. Rockefeller's house for a definite answer as to whether Mr. Rockefeller was there.

SUFFERING FROM INSANITY

Congressman Wedemeyer of Michigan Commits Suicide at Colon.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Representative William W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor, Mich., who suddenly went insane at Colon, Panama, at the time of President Taft's visit to the isthmus, jumped overboard from a ship on which he had been taken to Colon.

Representative Wedemeyer went to the isthmus with a congressional party at the same time the president visited there. On the voyage from New York he collapsed and was taken first to a sanatorium in Panama and later was put in confinement in a hospital, where he became violent and raved about his defeat last election. He developed a suicidal tendency and was closely watched.

THREE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Shot Firms Trapped in Joplin Mine After Lighting Fuses.

Joplin, Mo., Jan. 4.—John Pickle, Fred Fisher and Elmer Smith, shot fuses in the Imperial zinc mine near here, lighted the fuses of fifty dynamite charges and made their way to the hoist. A broken valve made it impossible to lift them out of the danger zone. They were buried under tons of debris.

FAVORS RESTORING CANTEEN

General Wood's Annual Report Is Made Public.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The restoration of the army canteen and enactment of legislation for the elimination from the United States army of unfit officers are among the principal recommendations of Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, in his annual report, just made public.

General Wood likewise recommends the concentration of the army on strategic lines and in areas where it can be more economically maintained and would transfer all the personnel of the staff corps—excepting engineers, medical officers and chaplains—to the line, increasing accordingly the number of general officers and line officers in the different grades.

Prisoners at Leavenworth Hear of Court's Action.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 4.—Thirty-three labor leaders convicted of connection with the dynamite conspiracy who began serving their terms in the federal prison here on New Year's day, lined up awkwardly in the warden's office, summoned by him to receive news of the granting by the federal circuit court of appeals of superseas bonds which may mean temporary freedom for at least thirty-two of them.

Emotions ranging from surprise to stolidity and confidence were depicted in their faces and manner as the warden told them of the granting of the bonds.

COST IRONWORKERS $85,000

Defendants at Dynamite Trial Were Given $8 a Day by Union.

Indianapolis, Jan. 4.—J. M. McClory, acting secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, said he did not believe the organization's expenses for the dynamite conspiracy trial, which resulted in thirty-two of the members and a Pacific coast labor leader being sentenced to Leavenworth prison, would exceed $85,000.

While the trial was in session, he said, the defendants were paid $5 a day as a wage allowance and $3 a day for board. The typewritten records are said to have cost a large sum.

AUTO BANDITS SMASH JEWELER'S WINDOW

Sensational Robbery and Gun Play at Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Four automobile bandits smashed in a jeweler's window here and escaped with a tray of diamonds after a running revolver fight with police, punctuated by spectacular features.

Their escape was aided by a fashionably dressed woman, who fainted in the arms of a uniformed policeman as he was drawing his revolver. As soon as the thieves were out of sight the woman recovered and disappeared.

A few minutes later the bandits' car was boarded by a policeman, who ordered them to drive to a police station for speeding.

They wheeled into a quiet street with the policeman and there shot, stabbed and slugged him and threw him off the car.

The men abandoned their automobile, which had been stolen just before the robbery, and disappeared in a crowded section of the West Side.

The raid and running fight was one of the most thrilling of the automobile bandit outrages in the recent past, which of this type of crime in this city.

LABOR LEADERS APPEAL

Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison Fight Jail Sentences.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, convicted of contempt of court and sentenced to jail in connection with the Buck's Store and Range case, filed their appeal in the District of Columbia court of appeals.

It alleges the men were convicted not of contempt of court but of respect for judicial authority. Seven teen alleged errors are charged against Justice Wright.

The committee of prosecutors will file a brief in reply before Feb. 5 and hearing of the appeal probably will be held about the second week in February.

TAFT HAS HAPPY NEW YEAR'S DAY

Holds Time Honored Function at White House.

UNDERWOOD NOW IN POWER

Those Who Want Things Put Through Congress "Go and See Oscar"—He Enjoys Same Distinction Uncle Joe Cannon Formerly Had—Office Seekers Have a Hard Time.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 4.—[Special].—President Taft was just as suave and smiling as ever when he greeted his guests on New Year's. While it is not the last function of the kind, it is his last New Year's reception, which includes a different assemblage from that which is invited to the four evening receptions during the winter. The New Year's reception is more of a man's affair. Women attend in some numbers. It is true, but for the most part the reception is more official than social.

Sometimes the popularity of a president is tested by the callers on New Year's. There have been times when scarcely any senators or representatives called upon the president. That was true in the last days of Cleveland's administration and again in the last of Roosevelt's administration.

"Let's Go and See Oscar."

If one wanted to gauge the power of men in congress he might follow the trail of men who want something. "Let's go and see Oscar" is what men say to each other when they talk about putting something through the house or when they want to accomplish results. It means that Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the committee on ways and means, is the power in the house. Heretofore it used to be "Let's go and see Uncle Joe," and the trail of those who wanted to get results in congress led to the speaker's door.

Now it is to the private office of Underwood, which, by an interesting coincidence, is the office formerly occupied by all speakers for more than fifty years.

New Members See Oscar.

The new members, those elected last fall, who come here seeking committee places do not go to see the speaker, as heretofore, but go and see Underwood, because as chairman of the committee on ways and means he will have more to do with the selection of committee places than all others. The great office of speaker, once considered the second place in the government, is not as important as the much despised office of vice president, since the Democrats deprived the speaker of nearly all power.

An Early Bird.

If office seekers would heed warnings they would certainly take advice and keep away from Washington. There was a pitiful story of a southern man in Washington not long ago. He told the member in whose district he lived that he had come to get a government job. The member told him that he was two months ahead of time, even if there was any possibility of landing a place for him. He was advised to go back home. Then he said that he had borrowed money to come to Washington, had spent it for railroad fare, had nothing to buy a ticket home nor to pay his board.

"I'll give you a few dollars to buy meals," said the member, "and you can telegraph for money to get back home. But I am not going to pay board or buy return tickets for stranded office seekers. I can't afford it, and I am not going to do it." The man said he could not get any money by telegraphing; he had borrowed himself out and didn't know where to turn.

There will be a lot more like him here in the next six months.

"They Call Us Pie Hunters."

There was great commotion in a corridor of the house one day when a man could not see a certain member. "They call us pie hunters," he shouted, and then with much profanity he added: "Who were pie hunters when they were trying to be elected? When they wanted help for the nomination's and elections they hunted us 'pie hunters.' I'm tired of 'em, I am. I'm going back home if I don't come my way, and I'll show 'em about next election time what pie hunting means. Who's more right to pie than me, after working through six campaigns for one man for congress?"

Talk of a Holdup.

There is a rumor that the Republicans of the senate may hold up the bill for the pension building until the Democrats consent to allow the different nominations made by President Taft to be confirmed. That would mean a deadlock, but it will not come about. The Republicans have obtained the pension office for four successive inaugural balls, and they could not very well refuse the Democrats the same privilege.

Army Reduction.

The Democratic house reduced the army by five cavalry regiments, but was checked by the Republican senate. There will be no Republican senate after the 4th of March, and in all probability the army appropriation bill will not be passed by that time, so that army reduction is one of the possibilities left in the new administration.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army and grand marshal of the inaugural parade, announced that in deference to President Elect Wilson's expressed wishes the representation of the army and navy would not be as great as at previous similar functions. These two services, all told, will be represented by about 7,000 men.

At a meeting of the inauguration committee Thomas Nelson Page told the members of Mr. Wilson's desire for simplicity.

CASTRO MAKES FIGHT TO ENTER AMERICA

Federal Judge Issues Writ of Habeas Corpus.

New York, Jan. 4.—The federal courts were invoked in behalf of Cipriano Castro and a writ of habeas corpus was granted to bring him before a judicial tribunal which may determine the cause of his detention at this port.

It was alleged in the application that the former president of Venezuela was being illegally held at the immigration station on Ellis Island, where he has been detained since his arrival on a French liner last Tuesday, and the court will be asked to sustain the writ and thus set him at liberty. The writ is returnable Jan. 10 before Federal Judge Holt, who granted it.

Castro, immediately upon finding his right to land was being questioned, had decided to return voluntarily to Europe and engaged passage on the steamer Amerika, sailing today for Hamburg. As soon as he learned the writ had been granted he recalled his passage.

PROGRESSIVES WILL GATHER AT ST. PAUL

Five States to Be Represented at Rally Jan. 24.

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—The Northwestern Progressive conference, the call for which has just been issued, was decided upon at the recent national conference held in Chicago. Representatives of the Progressive party from the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota at that time determined to hold this rally of the Progressives of these five states and settled upon St. Paul as the most convenient and central point and the best prepared to take care of the large meeting expected. Ex-President Roosevelt and Senator Beveridge gave the proposition their unqualified endorsement and the date was fixed at Jan. 24. It was also arranged at that time that Senator Beveridge should be present and deliver the principal address.

An all day conference will be held. The forenoon will be devoted to the consideration of Progressive organization and addresses will be delivered by leading organizers from the various states represented. This will be followed by a general discussion and the comparison of different plans of action. The afternoon session will take up the question of Progressive legislation and will be addressed by Progressive congressmen elect, Progressive state officials and Progressive state legislators. In the evening there will be a banquet at the Auditorium, where 1,000 guests will be accommodated. This will be a Progressive family dinner, strictly popular and moderate priced, open to men and women alike. At 8 o'clock the entire Auditorium, with 10,000 seats, will be thrown open free to the public and the meeting will be addressed by several noted speakers, among whom will be Senator Beveridge, Hon. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, and Mrs. Maud Howe Elliott, daughter of Julia Ward Howe, author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Give Turkey Until Monday to Accept Terms.

ISSUE POSITIVE ULTIMATUM

After Listening to the Proposals of the Ottoman Delegates the Representatives of the Allies Submit Counter Proposition and Intimate Negotiations Will End if It Is Not Accepted.

London, Jan. 4.—Although the word "ultimatum" was not pronounced what was practically an ultimatum was presented to Turkey at the sitting of the peace conference on behalf of the Balkan allies.

Lazar Mijuskovitch, head of the Montenegrin delegation, who presided, after the Turks had submitted a proposal which was considered unacceptable, told Rechad Pasha, chief delegate of the Ottoman empire, that either by Monday Turkey must find a way to renounce to the Balkan allies her rights over the island of Crete, cede the islands in the Aegean sea and present a rectification of the frontier of European Turkey, which would include Adrianople in the territory of the allies, or the allies would consider that further negotiations for peace were useless.

Immediately after the minutes of the last sitting had been approved M. Mijuskovitch asked Rechad Pasha to present to the delegates the promised new Turkish proposals.

Rechad, who had been working hard over a cipher telegram until a few minutes before the session was called to order, seemed rather depressed. On rising he said his government, desiring further to emphasize the conciliatory spirit that animated it, had authorized the Turkish military and technical experts attached to the Ottoman delegation to mark on a map the proposed new frontiers between Turkey and the allies, which he would present later. Meanwhile he read what he called "the last possible terms Turkey can offer." These were as follows:

Presents Turkish Proposals.

First—That Crete, enjoying simple suzerainty of the sultan, but in reality under the protection of Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy, constitutes a question which can be dealt with only by the powers under the responsibility of which the administration of the island is conducted, especially regarding finance, police and justice.

Second—That Turkey shall keep her islands. That she cannot renounce those near the Dardanelles because they are indispensable to the security of the channel of Constantinople; or the Bosphorus, as it is better known; nor those further south because they form an integral part of Anatolia.

Third—That the rectification of the Thracian frontier shall begin south of Segot (called Port Lagos), in Karagatan bay, and run almost perpendicularly northward.

This not only would leave Adrianople in the hands of the Turks, but also the entire coast along the Black sea now occupied by the Bulgarians, to Lake Derkos, beyond which the Bulgarians have not penetrated. This coast line, as the bird flies, measures more than eighty miles. In addition to Adrianople this rectification of the frontier would leave in Turkey's hands also Mustapha Pasha, Kirk Killiseh and the whole theater of the present war. The experts of the allies estimate that Turkey is asking 5,000 square miles of territory more than the allies are ready to give her.

Declare Terms Impossible.

Each leader of the allies, after the Turkish terms had been presented, declared that they were unacceptable and insisted on Turkey accepting those proposed by the allies. It was then that M. Mijuskovitch issued orally what seemed practically to be the ultimatum of the allies.

"The allies delegates," M. Mijuskovitch said, "see with regret that the Ottoman delegates take no account of the results of the war and the allies consequently would be justified in breaking off the negotiations. In order, however, to afford fresh proof of their conciliatory spirit they request the Ottoman delegates to make them at a sitting at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, a proposition on these terms."

Here M. Mijuskovitch submitted a counter proposition to that of the Turks. A summary of it follows: First—Turkey shall renounce whatever rights she possesses over Crete, leaving the allies to settle with the protecting powers the other points concerning the island.

Second—Turkey shall cede unconditionally all her islands in the Aegean archipelago, including those provisionally held by Italy.

Third—The allies propose such rectifications of the frontier as will include Adrianople in Bulgarian territory.

Federal Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago Grants Writ of Superseas to Thirty-two Men in Leavenworth Prison—Court Intimates Undue Haste Was Manifested in Committing Prisoners to Penitentiary.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Bonds aggregating $1,000,000 must be given if the thirty-two of the thirty-three labor leaders convicted of conspiracy to transport dynamite are to take advantage of the granting of a writ of superseas by the United States circuit court of appeals in this city.

Whether this sum can be obtained was admitted by counsel for the defendants to be a matter of grave doubt, but they expressed the belief that at least some of it could be obtained, enough to accomplish the liberty of President Frank M. Ryan and a few others until a decision has been reached on an appeal, for the filing of which the court allowed sixty days. The decision involves only thirty-two of the thirty-three men now in the Leavenworth penitentiary, as Herbert S. Heckin, designated among his fellow prisoners as the "informer," will not appeal.

Judges Baker and Sazman heard the arguments and the decision was given orally by Judge Baker. He took occasion to intimate that undue haste was manifested in Indianapolis in committing the defendants to prison.

Defense Scores Point.

The writ was issued largely on the point raised by the defense that the ironworkers were convicted of a conspiracy offense—a conspiracy to commit offenses continually.

In fixing the amount of bail the court was influenced by the fact that the offenses involved are not extraditable. Judge Anderson, who presided over the trial court at Indianapolis, was authorized to pass on the suitability and adequacy of any bonds offered.

District Attorney Miller of Indianapolis, who represented the government in the proceedings, stated that the bonds of surety companies probably would be acceptable, but that the surety must schedule in property twice the amount of the bond.

A basis of $10,000 for each year's sentence was used by the court in fixing the amount of the bonds. As Ryan was sentenced to serve seven years his bond was fixed at $70,000 and the same ratio was preserved throughout for the other convicted men.

Judge Baker said in commenting on the errors alleged by the defense against the trial court:

Discuss Alleged Errors.

"In this case the writ of error is an absolute right; a writ of superseas is not an absolute right. It has been the practice of federal criminal prosecution, however, to allow writs of superseas so as to release prisoners on bail until the case is finally decided on review.

Play at Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Four automobile bandits smashed in a jeweler's window here and escaped with a tray of diamonds after a running revolver fight with police, punctuated by spectacular features.

Their escape was aided by a fashionably dressed woman, who fainted in the arms of a uniformed policeman as he was drawing his revolver. As soon as the thieves were out of sight the woman recovered and disappeared.

A few minutes later the bandits' car was boarded by a policeman, who ordered them to drive to a police station for speeding.

They wheeled into a quiet street with the policeman and there shot, stabbed and slugged him and threw him off the car.

The men abandoned their automobile, which had been stolen just before the robbery, and disappeared in a crowded section of the West Side.

The raid and running fight was one of the most thrilling of the automobile bandit outrages in the recent prevalence of this type of crime in this city.

LABOR LEADERS APPEAL

Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison Fight Jail Sentences.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, convicted of contempt of court and sentenced to jail in connection with the Buck's Store and Range case, filed their appeal in the District of Columbia court of appeals.

It alleges the men were convicted not of contempt of court but of want of respect for judicial authority. Seventeen alleged errors are charged against Justice Wright.

The committee of prosecutors will file a brief in reply before Feb. 5 and hearing of the appeal probably will be held about the second week in February.

TAFT HAS HAPPY
NEW YEAR'S DAYHolds Time Honored Function
at White House.

UNDERWOOD NOW IN POWER

Those Who Want Things Put Through Congress "Go and See Oscar"—He Enjoys Same Distinction Uncle Joe Cannon Formerly Had—Office Seekers Have a Hard Time.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—President Taft was just as suave and smiling as ever when he greeted his guests on New Year's. While it is not the last function of the kind, it is his last New Year's reception, which includes a different assemblage from that which is invited to the four evening receptions during the winter. The New Year's reception is more of a man's affair. Women attend in some numbers. It is true, but for the most part the reception is more official than social.

Sometimes the popularity of a president is tested by the callers on New Year's. There have been times when scarcely any senators or representatives called upon the president. That was true in the last days of Cleveland's administration and again in the last of Roosevelt's administration.

"Let's Go and See Oscar."

If one wanted to gauge the power of men in congress he might follow the trail of men who want something. "Let's go and see Oscar" is what men say to each other when they talk about putting something through the house or when they want to accomplish results. It means that Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the committee on ways and means, is the power in the house. Heretofore it used to be "Let's go and see Uncle Joe," and the trail of those who wanted to get results in congress led to the speaker's door.

Now it is to the private office of Underwood, which, by an interesting coincidence, is the office formerly occupied by all speakers for more than fifty years.

New Members See Oscar.

The new members, those elected last fall, who come here seeking committee places do not go to the speaker, as heretofore, but go and see Underwood, because as chairman of the committee on ways and means he will have more to do with the selection of committee places than all others. The great office of speaker, once considered the second place in the government, is not as important as the much despised office of vice president, since the Democrats deprived the speaker of nearly all power.

An Early Bird.

If office seekers would heed warnings they would certainly take advice and keep away from Washington. There was a pitiful story of a southern man in Washington not long ago. He told the member in whose district he lived that he had come to get a government job. The member told him that he was two months ahead of time, even if there was any possibility of landing a place for him. He was advised to go back home. Then he said that he had borrowed money to come to Washington, had spent it for railroad fare, had nothing to buy a ticket home nor to pay his board.

"I'll give you a few dollars to buy meals," said the member, "and you can telegraph for money to get back home. But I am not going to pay board or buy return tickets for stranded office seekers. I can't afford it, and I am not going to do it." The man said he could not get any money by telegraphing; he had borrowed himself out and didn't know where to turn.

There will be a lot more like him here in the next six months.

"They Call Us Pie Hunters."

There was great commotion in a corridor of the house one day when a man could not see a certain member. "They call us pie hunters," he shouted, and then with much profanity he added: "Who were pie hunters when they were trying to be elected? When they wanted help for the nomination and elections they hunted us 'pie hunters.' I'm tired of 'em. I am. I'm going back home if 'pie' don't come my way, and I'll show 'em about next election time what pie hunting means. Who's more right to pie than me, after working through six campaigns for one man for congress?"

Talk of a Holdup.

There is a rumor that the Republicans of the senate may hold up the bill for the pension building until the Democrats consent to allow the different nominations made by President Taft to be confirmed. That would mean a deadlock, but it will not come about. The Republicans have obtained the pension office for four successive inaugurations and they could not very well refuse the Democrats the same privilege.

Army Reduction.

The Democratic house reduced the army by five cavalry regiments, but was checked by the Republican senate. There will be no Republican senate after the 4th of March, and in all probability the army appropriation bill will not be passed by that time, so that army reduction is one of the possibilities early in the new administration.

LESS SOLDIERS IN PARADE

Wood to Heed Wilson's Wishes in Cutting Military Forces.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army and grand marshal of the inaugural parade, announced that in deference to President Elect Wilson's expressed wishes the representation of the army and navy would not be as great as at previous similar functions. These two services, all told, will be represented by about 7,000 men.

At a meeting of the inauguration committee Thomas Nelson Page told the members of Mr. Wilson's desire for simplicity.

CASTRO MAKES FIGHT
TO ENTER AMERICAFederal Judge Issues Writ of Habeas Corpus.

New York, Jan. 4.—The federal courts were invoked in behalf of Cipriano Castro and a writ of habeas corpus was granted to bring him before a judicial tribunal which may determine the cause of his detention at this port.

It was alleged in the application that the former president of Venezuela was being illegally held at the immigration station on Ellis Island, where he has been detained since his arrival on a French liner last Tuesday, and the court will be asked to sustain the writ and thus set him at liberty. The writ is returnable Jan. 10 before Federal Judge Holt, who granted it.

Castro, immediately upon finding his right to land was being questioned, had decided to return voluntarily to Europe and engaged passage on the steamer Amerika, sailing today for Hamburg. As soon as he learned the writ had been granted he recalled his passage.

STORM PLAYS GREAT HAVOC

Gales on Atlantic and Pacific Coasts and Other Sections.

New York, Jan. 4.—The first severe storm of the new year and the most destructive one of the season swept along the Atlantic coast, causing great property loss. Simultaneously came reports of storms of equal violence in portions of the South and Middle West and along a part of the Pacific coast.

Wire communication in all sections of the country was crippled. At times as few as five of the score of wires between this city and Chicago were working and all wires south of Atlanta were prostrated. Damage caused to shipping on sea, lake and harbor can only be estimated.

SENATOR BAILEY RESIGNS

R. M. Johnston, His Successor, Now in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Senator Joseph W. Bailey sent his resignation as senator from Texas to Senator Gallinger, to take effect immediately. R. M. Johnston of Houston is now in the city and Senator Bailey said that he would be appointed by the governor to succeed him with the expectation that the legislature when it meets would elect him to fill out the unexpired term.

Auto Goes Over Embankment.

St. Louis City, Mo., Jan. 4.—An automobile containing two boys and two girls, driven by John Knott, a son of Dr. Van Buren Knott, went over a thirty-five-foot embankment on the outskirts of the city, severely injuring the occupants and wrecking the machine. E. B. Curran received internal injuries and may die.

SHOW TEMPERPROGRESSIVES WILL GATHER AT ST. PAULFive States to Be Represented at Rally Jan. 24.

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—The Northwestern Progressive conference, the call for which has just been issued, was decided upon at the recent national conference held in Chicago. Representatives of the Progressive party from the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota at that time determined to hold this rally of the Progressives of these five states and settled upon St. Paul as the most convenient and central point and the best prepared to take care of the large meeting expected.

Ex-President Roosevelt and Senator Beveridge gave the proposition their unqualified endorsement and the date was fixed at Jan. 24. It was also arranged at that time that Senator Beveridge should be present and deliver the principal address.

An all day conference will be held. The forenoon will be devoted to the consideration of Progressive organization and addresses will be delivered by leading organizers from the various states represented. This will be followed by a general discussion and the comparison of different plans of action. The afternoon session will take up the question of Progressive legislation and will be addressed by Progressive congressmen elect, Progressive state officials and Progressive state legislators. In the evening there will be a banquet at the Auditorium, where 1,000 guests will be accommodated. This will be a Progressive family dinner, strictly popular and moderate priced, open to men and women alike. At 8 o'clock the entire Auditorium, with 10,000 seats, will be thrown open free to the public and the meeting will be addressed by several noted speakers, among whom will be Senator Beveridge, Hon. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, and Mrs. Maud Howe Elliott, daughter of Julia Ward Howe, author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

URGES WILSON'S CLASSMATE

Senator Owen Booms Robert Rogers for Secretary of Interior.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 4.—Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma presented to President Elect Wilson the name of Robert Rogers, an Oklahoma lawyer, for the post of secretary of the interior.

"Senator Owen dwelt upon the fact that Mr. Rogers has a general practice in which he has distinguished himself," Mr. Wilson said. "He added that Mr. Rogers had been prominent as a progressive Democrat in Oklahoma."

Mr. Rogers was a classmate of Mr. Wilson at the University of Virginia, but they have not seen each other since, the governor said.

Give Turkey Until Monday to Accept Terms.

ISSUE POSITIVE ULTIMATUM

After Listening to the Proposals of the Ottoman Delegates the Representatives of the Allies Submitted Counter Proposition and Intimate Negotiations Will End if It Is Not Accepted.

London, Jan. 4.—Although the word "ultimatum" was not pronounced what was practically an ultimatum was presented to Turkey at the sitting of the peace conference on behalf of the Balkan allies.

Lazar Myuskovitch, head of the Montenegrin delegation, who presided, after the Turks had submitted a proposal which was considered unacceptable, told Rechad Pasha, chief delegate of the Ottoman empire, that either by Monday Turkey must find a way to renounce to the Balkan allies her rights over the island of Crete, cede the islands in the Aegean sea and present a rectification of the frontier of European Turkey, which would include Adrianople in the territory of the allies, or the allies would consider that further negotiations for peace were useless.

Immediately after the minutes of the last sitting had been approved M. Myuskovitch asked Rechad Pasha to present to the delegates the promised new Turkish proposals.

Rechad, who had been working hard over a cipher telegram until a few minutes before the session was called to order, seemed rather depressed. On rising he said his government, desiring further to emphasize the conciliatory spirit that animated it, had authorized the Turkish military and technical experts attached to the Ottoman delegation to mark on a map the proposed new frontiers between Turkey and the allies, which he would present later. Meanwhile he read what he called "the last possible terms Turkey can offer." These were as follows:

Presents Turkish Proposals.

First—That Crete, enjoying simple suzerainty of the sultan, but in reality under the protection of Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy, constitutes a question which can be dealt with only by the powers under the responsibility of which the administration of the island is conducted, especially regarding finance, police and justice.

Second—That Turkey shall keep her islands. That she cannot renounce those near the Dardanelles because they are indispensable to the security of the channel of Constantinople; or the Bosphorus, as it is better known; nor those further south because they form an integral part of Anatolia.

Third—That the rectification of the Thracian frontier shall begin south of Segot (called Port Lagos), in Karagatan bay, and run almost perpendicularly northward.

This not only would leave Adrianople in the hands of the Turks, but also the entire coast along the Black sea now occupied by the Bulgarians, to Lake Derkos, beyond which the Bulgarians have not penetrated. This coast line, as the bird flies, measures more than eighty miles. In addition to Adrianople this rectification of the frontier would leave in Turkey's hands also Mustapha Pasha, Kirk Kilis and the whole theater of the present war. The experts of the allies estimate that Turkey is asking 5,000 square miles of territory more than the allies are ready to give her.

Declare Terms Impossible.

Each leader of the allies, after the Turkish terms had been presented, declared that they were unacceptable and insisted on Turkey accepting those proposed by the allies. It was then that M. Myuskovitch issued orally what seemed practically to be the ultimatum of the allies.

"The allies delegates," M. Myuskovitch said, "see with regret that the Ottoman delegates take no account of the results of the war and the allies consequently would be justified in breaking off the negotiations. In order, however, to afford fresh proof of their conciliatory spirit they request the Ottoman delegates to make them at a sitting at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, Jan. 6, a proposition on these terms."

Here M. Myuskovitch submitted a counter proposition to that of the Turks. A summary of it follows:

First—Turkey shall renounce whatever rights she possesses over Crete, leaving the allies to settle with the protecting powers the other points concerning the island.

Second—Turkey shall cede unconditionally all her islands in the Aegean archipelago, including those provisionally held by Italy.

Third—The allies propose such rectifications of the frontier as will include Adrianople in Bulgarian territory.

Perhaps She Was Skeptical.

"Just my luck."

"What's the matter now?"

"I promised my wife I'd be home at 10 o'clock last night."

"And couldn't make it, I suppose?"

"No; I got in at just 9:45, but she was sound asleep, and I failed to get credit for it."—Detroit Free Press.

The name of a woman has been proposed to President-elect Wilson for the portfolio of Secretary of War by the suffragettes. With a woman on the job we should get all the war coming to us.

St. Cloud has installed her white way and now comes Little Falls with the declaration that one of the business streets in that city will be lighted in the same manner. Brainerd installed the system some time ago and it has done more to advertise the city than any other one thing.

The latest thing to take advantage of the parcel post rates is a coffin which was sent by a manufacturing concern to an undertaker, and in order to make it come within the limit the lid was mailed as a separate package. Coffins, live lobsters and brick are probably articles that never went through the mails before.

A movement is on foot to secure a parole for Dr. Dumas, convicted of attempted arson, and now serving a term in the state prison. This move is not an unexpected one and the friends of the former Cass Lake mayor or confidently expect to secure his release from prison. Dumas is said to have stated while being taken to prison that he would be on his way to Europe inside of a year.

The business men of Pillager have banded together for the purpose of doing away with the credit business and have signed an agreement to sell goods for cash only beginning January 1st. The idea that "if you are good at the bank you can borrow the money, and if you are not good at the bank you are not good at the store," and "pay as you go— if you don't pay you don't go," are the principles adopted by the merchants there.

A New Year's party came to a sudden termination in a New Jersey town when the host ordered the creme de mint served with which to drink the health of the guests and to the prosperity of the coming year. The butler had a taste for the liqueur and had exhausted the supply during the days and as a substitute he had replaced it with green ink. The color was all right but the guests were all in need of a doctor as soon as they had swallowed the writing fluid.

The Minnesota wolf bounty law was enacted in 1866 and since that early date when the country was for the most part wild the wolves as a been increasing regardless of the fact that the state has paid out hundreds of thousands of dollars in bounties.

The first year the bounty prevailed the state paid $384 at the rate of $3 per wolf. During the year past the state paid $24,808.50 for wolf bounties and the increase seems to be going on. In the aggregate since 1866 to the present time the vast sum of $579,738.22 has been paid out as bounties on wolves in this state.

The local officers desire a large attendance at the meeting.

WILL DESIGN NEW CURRENCY.

Kenyon Cox, New York Artist, Receives Commission.

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department has engaged Kenyon Cox, a New York artist, to design the back of the new American currency notes. This design on the back will be the same for all denominations of all classes of notes—United States notes, gold certificates and national bank notes. By adopting only one design for the back Mr. MacVeagh believes that this feature of the currency can be given over to art, permitting changes and improvements to be easily made. Mr. Cox has submitted to the secretary the general features of the design he contemplates, and these were tentatively approved. The design is symbolic of progress and peace, showing the development of the nation in the past, labor and commerce.

The new currency will be 6 1/2 inches in size of that now in circulation, its dimensions being 6 by 2 1/2 inches.

Secretary MacVeagh expects to give the order for printing the new notes to Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing about Feb. 15, almost at the end of his administration. It will require eighteen months to accomplish the change, which consequently will not be consummated until well along in President Wilson's term of office.

BOUNDARY LINE MARKS.

Those Between Hanover and Holland on the Rhine Are Unique.

Many of the international boundary marks display a sentimental as well as a practical character. The famous "Pillar of Farewell" which marks the line between Russia and Siberia, has been celebrated in song and story. The strangest of European frontier lines is that marking the boundary between Hanover and Holland, where it crosses the Rhine. A row of pontoons lies across the river, chained bow and stern. Inasmuch as the dividing line runs through from stem to stern, the eastern halves of the boats are painted in German colors, the western in Dutch. The effect is most striking.

Austria has a frontier line of about 3,800 miles, of which 2,096 is land. Every mile of this must be guarded against the encroachments of Austria's neighbors. Germany is in a similar situation, since her land frontiers, bordering upon Russia, Austria, Switzerland, France, Holland and Belgium are 2,255 miles in extent, and by far the larger portion is not protected by mountains, rivers or any other natural boundaries. DRESS OF MALTESE WOMEN.

Silk Hooded Cloaks Hide Face and Form From the Curious.

The dress of the Maltese is very singular, and that of the women striking in the extreme. When abroad they are all arrayed in black. They put on over their other dress a robe or loose skirt of that color, brought high on the bosom, and in place of bonnets their heads are covered with a black silk mantle which invests their shoulders and descends halfway behind.

The part which covers the head is furnished with a piece of whalebone inserted in the hem, which keeps it in position and prevents the silk from dropping over the eyes. One hand, placed inside, is always necessary to hold together the sides of the scarf in front, and the other hand is often hid under its folds, only a forefinger being suffered to appear through the opening left for the purpose. Of course, under such mufflers little can be seen of the beauties of form or feature if a Maltese nymph happens to possess them. The eyes and a moving, pall black figure are all that can be distinguished.

But sometimes the fair one deigns to exhibit her face to a curious gazer in place of engrossing herself the privilege of seeing, and features good humored, rather pleasing than handsome and irradiated by a pair of fine, sparkling eyes, are displayed to the beholder. The complexion is a dark olive, partaking a little of a sort of mulatto tinge.

The mantle is obviously borrowed, or rather it has descended from a distant age and people. It answers to the veil of eastern ladies.

Such figures, thousands of whom are abroad on the Sabbath, give the streets a funeral look. It seems as if all Malta had gone into mourning.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The name of a woman has been proposed to President-elect Wilson for the portfolio of Secretary of War by the suffragettes. With a woman on the job we should get all the war coming to us.

St. Cloud has installed her white way and now comes Little Falls with the declaration that one of the business streets in that city will be lighted in the same manner. Brainerd installed the system some time ago and it has done more to advertise the city than any other one thing.

The latest thing to take advantage of the parcel post rates is a coffin which was sent by a manufacturing concern to an undertaker, and in order to make it come within the limit the lid was mailed as a separate package. Coffins, live lobsters and brick are probably articles that never went through the mails before.

A movement is on foot to secure a parole for Dr. Dumas, convicted of attempted arson, and now serving a term in the state prison. This move is not an unexpected one and the friends of the former Cass Lake mayor confidently expect to secure his release from prison. Dumas is said to have stated while being taken to prison that he would be on his way to Europe inside of a year.

The business men of Pillager have banded together for the purpose of doing away with the credit business and have signed an agreement to sell goods for cash only beginning January 1st. The idea that "if you are good at the bank you can borrow the money, and if you are not good at the bank you are not good at the store," and "pay as you go—if you don't pay you don't go," are the principles adopted by the merchants there.

A New Year's party came to a sudden termination in a New Jersey town when the host ordered the creme de mint served with which to drink the health of the guests and to the prosperity of the coming year. The butler had a taste for the liqueur and had exhausted the supply during the days and as a substitute he had replaced it with green ink. The color was all right but the guests were all in need of a doctor as soon as they had swallowed the writing fluid.

The Minnesota wolf bounty law was enacted in 1866 and since that early date when the country was for the most part wild the wolves have been increasing regardless of the fact that the state has paid out hundreds of thousands of dollars in bounties.

The first year the bounty prevailed the state paid $384 at the rate of $3 per wolf. During the year past the state paid $24,808.50 for wolf bounties and the increase seems to be going on. In the aggregate since 1866 to the present time the vast sum of $579,738.22 has been paid out as bounties on wolves in this state.

Askeland, of Minneapolis, a prominent officer of the order, will deliver an address. A social hour during which refreshments will be served, will follow. The local officers desire a large attendance at the meeting.

WILL DESIGN NEW CURRENCY.

Kenyon Cox, New York Artist, Receives Commission.

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department has engaged Kenyon Cox, a New York artist, to design the back of the new American currency notes. This design on the back will be the same for all denominations of all classes of notes—United States notes, coin certificates and national bank notes. By adopting only one design for the back Mr. MacVeagh believes that this feature of the currency can be given over to art, permitting changes and improvements to be easily made. Mr. Cox has submitted to the secretary the general features of the design he contemplates, and these were tentatively approved. The design is symbolic of progress and peace, showing the development of the nation in the past, labor and commerce.

The new currency will be two-thirds the size of that now in circulation, its dimensions being 6 by 2½ inches.

Secretary MacVeagh expects to give the order for printing the new notes to Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing about Feb. 15, almost at the end of his administration. It will require eighteen months to accomplish the change, which consequently will not be consummated until well along in President Wilson's term of office.

Continuous Performance.

BOUNDARY LINE MARKS.

Those Between Hanover and Holland on the Rhine Are Unique.

Many of the international boundary marks display a sentimental as well as a practical character. The famous "Pillar of Farewell," which marks the line between Russia and Siberia, has been celebrated in song and story. DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

The Massive Concrete Work on Cuyuna Range Power Company's Dam is About Completed

HYDRAULIC WORK IN WINTER

A. B. Coates, of Virginia, on Range—New Mining Co., the Duluth-Brainerd Iron Co.

The Cuyuna Range Power company concrete work at their big dam on the Crow Wing river southwest of Brainerd is about completed and work will soon be commenced installing the water wheels, generators, etc. The dam will generate 3,000 horsepower. The steam auxiliary at Deerwood generates 300 horsepower. This power company at present utilizing the steam power plant supplies electric light and power to Deerwood, Orelund, Crosby, Cuyuna, Ironton and to the Pennington pit mine west of Crosby and Ironton, to the Armour mines, to the Carlson-Williams hydraulic mine and to other industries. The dam will be in operation in the early spring by which time current will be supplied the town of Barrows on the south range.

New transformers have been ordered at the Carlson-Williams hydraulic plant and work will soon be resumed of washing away the 40 feet of surface which lies on top of the ore bed. At present a ten inch pump and a sand pump on a barge carried away the silt. Supt. Nelson has been down in Florida looking up sand pumps and the manner of moving big deposits of sand and a pump will probably be put down to the ore body, to which the two 2,000 gallon pumps operating under 50 pounds pressure will wash the debris and from which it will in turn be sucked out by a monster sand pump.

Water will be frozen ground with such force that cold weather will not deter operations. Things will be arranged in such shape that, in case of necessity two men could operate the whole plant. Government surveyors have established the meander lines at Little Rabbit lake. The town of Riverton is situated near the hydraulic plant and a boom is expected in that growing town in the spring as the Soo Line will build out to it and the Cuyuna Northern railway has also surveyed out to it.

Two drills are operating in section 23, township 46, range 28, on Olson Brothers place. This is near the Highfield farm where two drills are at work. Gus Raymond has charge of the Olson Brothers drilling for the Gorham-Garrett people.

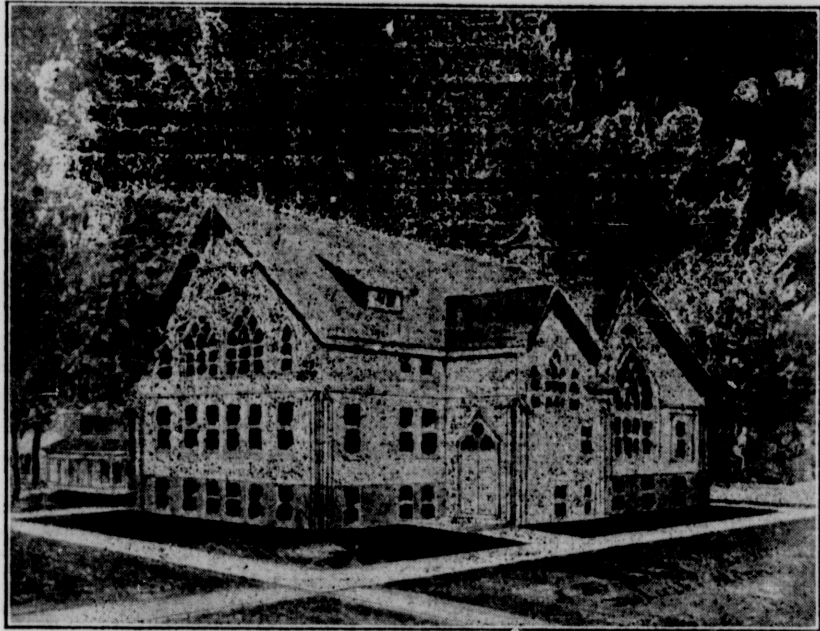

The Cuyuna-Duluth mine at Ironton is now within a few feet of the ore bed. Some water has been encountered. Sinking has been comparatively easy as the shaft is being sunk in a territory well mined at present where previous shafts sunk have drained a wide area.

J. H. Harrigan, representing A. B. Coates of Virginia, has been examining the south range at and near Brainerd and Barrows. Mr. Coates of Coates & Miller, is an independent miner operating the Alberta mine on the Mesaba and also at one time the mine on Longyear lake near Chisholm and also having other interests.

"I doubt if I can get Mr. Coates interested on this range," said Mr. Harrigan. "All the farmers I have talked with want a cash payment before they will give the privilege of exploration. We are willing to explore for an interest or on a royalty basis, but object to paying down cash too in addition to the thousands we

ARCHITECT'S PERSPECTIVE OF PROPOSED REMODELED METHODIST CHURCH

The First Methodist church, when all proposed alterations and additions have been completed, will be a modern Sunday school plant. Austin Terryberry, of Duluth, is the architect and he has in a most creditable manner embodied all the suggestions of the various members of the church committee.

Besides possessing an enlarged auditorium it will have eight Sunday school class rooms in the gallery, two large social rooms on the main floor and two large rooms for the Kindergarten work in the basement.

At the left of the picture is Sixth street and to the right, running east and west, is Juniper street. The section to the right and the rear is part of the old church structure.

"OUR CANDY KITCHEN"

Established at 622 Laurel Street by J. D. Lee Will Also Serve Meals and Lunches

J. D. Lee has established a confectionery store and a lunch room at 622 Laurel street known as "Our Candy Kitchen" and in addition to handling a line of good candies, cigars, stationery, etc., will also serve lunches and make a specialty of a good, satisfying dinner. His mother will supervise the restaurant and her charge of the kitchen is a guarantee of good home cooking.

Additional tables and other equipment have been ordered and as soon as it arrives the new establishment will advertise extensively.

PARKER-HUMES WEDDING

Account of the Ceremony as Given in the Minneapolis Journal

At the Leamington took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the wedding of Miss Dorothy Humes of Cass Lake, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Bardwell Humes, to Clyde Parker of Brainerd, Minn. Archdeacon H. F. Parshall of Cass Lake, officiated in the presence of about thirty-six relatives and intimate friends. The vows were spoken in the rose room, which was banked with palms amid which were arranged pink roses. The bride wore a suit of electric blue chiffon velvet and a white plush hat. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Donna Lyan of Bemidji was the maid of honor and she was gowned in electric blue crepe meteor and wore a corsage bouquet of violets, lilies of the valley and pink roses. Dr. Howard Ingersoll of Brainerd, was the best man. Following the ceremony a dinner was served in the blue room, which was decorated in pink roses and palms.

Mr. Parker and his bride have gone to California for a wedding trip and will be at home after Feb. 1 at Brainerd. The bride attended the university and belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta. She is very talented and known as a composer and singer of her own songs. The family lived in St. Cloud before moving to Cass Lake, and is very prominently known in northern Minnesota. Mr. Parker is a Brainerd business man.

Bemidji guests at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Sanborn, Judge C. W. Stanton, Mrs. F. S. Lyan, Miss Donna Lyan and Wilbur Lyan.

Brainerd guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker, the Misses Ethel and Irma Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Webb, Paul Perkins, Dr. and Mrs. Howard G. Ingersoll, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Wise—Minneapolis Journal.

ROAR ABOUT WATER

Duluth Meters Register Gallons Ad Infinitum on a Compressed Air Ration

Talk about your water troubles, they surely are facing them in Duluth. The other day a big water main broke down inconveniencing the whole city. Some of the pumps continued to suck air and the little water meters, active as water bugs, registered water on the compressed air they were handling. As there are no air figures on a water meter it all registered water.

One householder, who had lectured his wife on household expenses and who, like most of us, commences to save when the money is all gone, happened to walk to the basement when the kitchen faucet ran dry and nearly died of enlargement of the heart and general nervous prostration as he heard his water meter ticking away like a Waterbury watch.

The Duluth water board contemplates hiring a bunch of experts to adjust matters with a wrathful number of water users and some expert knowledge will be required to make a physical valuation of the meter's record in order to separate compressed air from an inflated water registration.

LIVE MOSQUITO IN CAPTIVITY

Little Falls and its mosquito which boldly stung a woman on the cheek is discounted by our fellow townsman, Dee Holden, who in his buffet is today displaying at the back bar the only live mosquito in captivity.

It is of the male species and has a long proboscis and patriarchal whiskers. The animal is corked up in a small bottle and is being fed on a few drops of straight whiskey. The mosquito is kept warm by being placed near the alcohol lamp under the hot water tank which supplies part of the material for hot toddies and also for beef teas and other cold weather drinks.

The mosquito is very tame and incarceration in its alcoholic flavored abode has made it a most lively little cuss. It stands on its head and performs peculiar gyrations. A tooth pick placed in the bottle must resemble a lamp post to the eyes of the voracious creature and at nine o'clock this morning the mosquito embraced the post like a man coming home at two o'clock in the morning. It was plainly heard singing "We Won't Come Home Till Morning."

Crowds have been at Dee Holden's waiting their turn to catch a glimpse of the mosquito which like Capt. Peary has reached a farthest north point and thus strikes a colder latitude than the one which buzzed into Little Falls the other day.

J. P. Barney has imprisoned at his home three blue bottle flies which were swooping around his back yard early this morning in 14 below zero weather. Barney captured them by skillfully throwing a dinner bucket over them and then took them into his parlor where they are now disappearing themselves in the room and occasionally resting on the backs of the gold fish in the aquarium.

It has been a warm winter, all right and mosquitos and bottle flies certainly substantiate it.

BAPTIST ANNUAL MEETING

Officers Elected for Ensuing Term—Reports Read Followed by a Pleasant Social Hour

The annual meeting of the Baptist church included the election of officers for the ensuing year and the rendition of a program which included a duet "Redeeming Love" by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Cody. A very pleasing reading was given by Miss Fern Grimmer in Irish dialect. Miss Grimmer responded with an encore.

Interesting reports were given by the various societies of the church showing the splendid advancement in almost every department of the church work and a balance on hand in the treasury of every society. The reports of the Ladies' Aid societies of the church and the Mill mission were especially gratifying in the work accomplished and the amount of money raised.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening exercises and a pleasant social hour spent.

The officers elected are as follows: Trustee for 3 years—Arthur Lyndon.

Deacon for 3 years—George R. Cain.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

The Massive Concrete Work on Cuyuna Range Power Company's Dam is About Completed

HYDRAULIC WORK IN WINTER

A. B. Coates, of Virginia, on Range—New Mining Co., the Duluth-Brainerd Iron Co.

The Cuyuna Range Power company concrete work at their big dam on the Crow Wing river southwest of Brainerd is about completed and work will soon be commenced installing the water wheels, generators, etc. The dam will generate 1,000 horsepower. The steam auxiliary at Deerwood generates 300 horsepower. This power company at present utilizing the steam power plant supplies electric light and power to Deerwood, Orelund, Crosby, Cuyuna, Ironton and to the Pennington pit mine west of Crosby and Ironton, to the Armour mines, to the Carlson-Williams hydraulic mine and to other industries. The dam will be in operation in the early spring by which time current will be supplied the town of Barrows on the south range.

New transformers have been ordered at the Carlson-Williams hydraulic plant and work will soon be resumed of washing away the 40 feet of surface which lies on top of the ore bed. At present a ten inch pump and a sand pump on a barge carried away the silt. Supt. Nelson has been down in Florida looking up sand pumps and the manner of moving big deposits of sand and a sump will probably be put down to the ore body, to which the two 2,000 gallon pumps operating under 50 pounds pressure will wash the debris and from which it will in turn be sucked out by a monster sand pump.

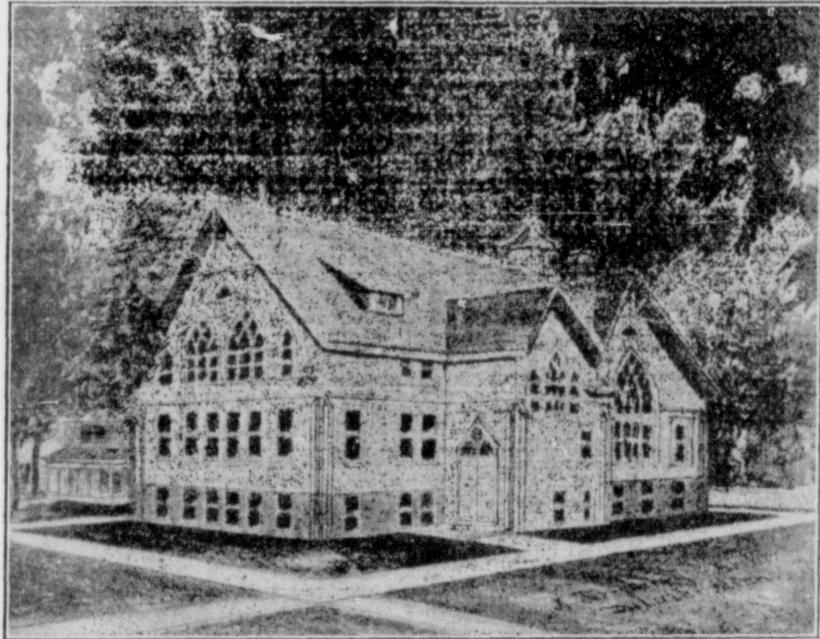

Water will not be frozen ground with such force that cold weather will not deter operations. Tunnels will be arranged in such shape that, in case of necessity two men could operate the whole plant. Government surveyors have established the meander lines at Little Rabbit lake. The town of Riverton is situated near the hydraulic plant and a boom is expected in that growing town in the spring as the Soo Line will build out to it and the Cuyuna Northern railway has also surveyed out to it.

Two drills are operating in section 23, township 46, range 28, on Olson Brothers place. This is near the Highfield farm where two drills are at work. Gus Raymond has charge of the Olson Brothers drilling for the Gorbam-Garrett people. The Cuyuna-Duluth mine at Ironton is now within a few feet of the ore bed. Some water has been encountered. Sinking has been comparatively easy as the shaft is being sunk in a territory well mined at present where previous shafts sunk have drained a wide area.

J. H. Harrigan, representing A. B. Coates of Virginia, has been examining the south range at and near Brainerd and Barrows. Mr. Coates of Coates & Miller, is an independent miner operating the Alberta mine on the Mesaba and also at one time the mine on Longyear lake near Chisholm and also having other interests. "I doubt if I can get Mr. Coates interested on this range," said Mr. Harrigan. "All the farmers I have talked with want a cash payment before they will give the privilege of exploration. We are willing to explore for an interest or on a royalty basis, but object to paying down cash too in addition to the thousands we

ARCHITECT'S PERSPECTIVE OF PROPOSED REMODELED METHODIST CHURCH

The First Methodist church, when all proposed alterations and additions have been completed, will be a modern Sunday school plant. Austin Terryberry, of Duluth, is the architect and he has in a most creditable manner embodied all the suggestions of the various members of the church committee.

Besides possessing an enlarged auditorium it will have eight Sunday school class rooms in the gallery, two large social rooms on the main floor and two large rooms for the Kindergarten work in the basement.

At the left of the picture is Sixth street and to the right, running east and west, is Juniper street. The section to the right and the rear is part of the old church structure.

PARKER-HUMES WEDDING

Account of the Ceremony as Given in the Minneapolis Journal

At the Leamington took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the wedding of Miss Dorothy Humes of Cass Lake, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Bardwell Humes, to Clyde Parker of Brainerd, Minn. Archdeacon H. F. Parrish of Cass Lake, officiated in the presence of about thirty-six relatives and intimate friends. The vows were spoken in the rose room, which was banked with palms amid which were arranged pink roses. The bride wore a suit of electric blue chiffon velvet and a white plush hat. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Donna Lycan of Bemidji was the maid of honor and she was gowned in electric blue crepe meteor and wore a corsage bouquet of violets, lilies of the valley and pink roses. Dr. Howard Ingersoll of Brainerd, was the best man. Following the ceremony a dinner was served in the blue room, which was decorated in pink roses and palms.

Mr. Parker and his bride have gone to California for a wedding trip and will be at home after Feb. 1 at Brainerd. The bride attended the university and belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta. She is very talented and known as a composer and singer of her own songs. The family lived in St. Cloud before moving to Cass Lake, and is very prominently known in northern Minnesota. Mr. Parker is a Brainerd business man.

Bemidji guests at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Sanborn, Judge C. W. Stanton, Mrs. F. S. Lycan, Miss Donna Lycan and Wilbur Lycan.

Brainerd guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker, the Misses Ethel and Irma Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Webb, Paul Perkins, Dr. and Mrs. Howard G. Ingersoll, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Wise—Minneapolis Journal.

ROAR ABOUT WATER

Duluth Meters Register Gallons Ad Infinitum on a Compressed Air Ration

Talk about your water troubles, they surely are facing them in Duluth. The other day a big water main broke down inconveniencing the whole city. Some of the pumps continued to suck air and the little water meters, active as water bugs, registered water on the compressed air they were handling. As there are no air figures on a water meter it all registered water.

One householder, who had lectured his wife on household expenses and who, like most of us, commences to save when the money is all gone, happened to walk to the basement when the kitchen faucet ran dry and nearly died of enlargement of the heart and general nervous prostration as he heard his water meter ticking away like a Waterbury watch.

The Duluth water board contemplates hiring a bunch of experts to adjust matters with a wrathful number of water users and some expert knowledge will be required to make a physical valuation of the meter's record in order to separate compressed air from an inflated water registration.

LIVE MOSQUITO IN CAPTIVITY

Little Falls and its mosquito which boldly stung a woman on the cheek is discounted by our fellow townsman, Dee Holden, who in his buffet is today displaying at the back bar the only live mosquito in captivity.

It is of the male species and has a long proboscis and patriarchal whiskers. The animal is corked up in a small bottle and is being fed on a few drops of straight whiskey. The mosquito is kept warm by being placed near the alcohol lamp under the hot water tank which supplies part of the material for hot toddies and also for beef teas and other cold weathery drinks.

The mosquito is very tame and incarceration in its alcoholic flavored abode has made it a most lively little cuss. It stands on its head and performs peculiar gyrations. A tooth pick placed in the bottle must resemble a lamp post to the eyes of the carnivorous creature and at nine o'clock this morning the mosquito embraced the post like a man coming home at two o'clock in the morning. It was plainly heard singing "We Won't Come Home Till Morning."

Crowds have been at Dee Holden's waiting their turn to catch a glimpse of the mosquito which like Capt. Peary has reached a farthest north point and thus strikes a colder latitude than the one which buzzed into Little Falls the other day.

J. P. Barney has imprisoned at his home three blue bottle flies which were swooping around his back yard early this morning in 14 below zero weather. Barney captured them by skillfully throwing a dinner bucket over them and then took them into his parlor where they are now disporting themselves in the room and occasionally resting on the backs of the gold fish in the aquarium.

It has been a warm winter, all right and mosquitos and bottle flies certainly substantiate it.

BAPTIST ANNUAL MEETING

Officers Elected for Ensuing Term—Reports Read Followed by a Pleasant Social Hour

The annual meeting of the Baptist church included the election of officers for the ensuing year and the rendition of a program which included a duet "Redeeming Love" by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Cody. A very pleasing reading was given by Miss Fern Grimmer in Irish dialect. Miss Grimmer responded with an encore.

Interesting reports were given by the various societies of the church showing the splendid advancement in almost every department of the church work and a balance on hand in the treasury of every society. The reports of the Ladies' Aid societies of the church and the Mill mission were especially gratifying in the work accomplished and the amount of money raised.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening exercises and a pleasant social hour spent.

SAWMILL PLANNED FOR DEERWOOD

If Timber is Sufficient It Will be Established by Messrs. Stoner and Miller

PROSPEROUS YEAR OF 1912

Engagement Announced of Miss Caroline Hale and James Tracy Hale, Jr.

Deerwood, Minn., January 2.—A sawmill in Deerwood is a possibility if sufficient timber can be located and supplied to keep the mill running. It will be established by Messrs. M. D. Stoner and A. W. Miller. If Deerwood cannot furnish enough timber, the promoters will build it in Cuyuna. The timber and lumber sawed will be used in large part by the Cuyuna Range Power company.

1912 has been a most prosperous year for Deerwood and its vicinity. In conversations with business men the consensus of opinion is that the year just past has dealt out prosperity in a generous manner to Deerwood.

Fred J. Thomas, of the Mahlum Lumber company, said: "We did a very good business. Ten residences were built in town, there was much repair work and in addition we have supplied lumber to Oreland for the Hotel Oreland and other structures and we sent carloads of lumber to the Cuyuna-Duluth mine."

Gust Oberg, secretary and treasurer of the Deerwood Clothing company, said: "Our business has been very good in the past year, fully justifying our faith in the business possibilities in Deerwood. We have had much trade from quite an area in the vicinity including Oreland and other points."

Attorney and Mrs. William C. White, of Milwaukee, Wis., on Christmas day announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Caroline Hale to Mr. James Tracy Hale, Jr., the son of Judge and Mrs. J. T. Hale of Deerwood. The wedding will take place in Deerwood in the early summer.

A. W. Miller has a lemon tree and an orange tree at his home and says the recent warm spell has caused his indoor orchard to grow blossoms guaranteeing a big yield. To stimulate the growth of his trees, Mr. Miller, who is quite an engineer and electrician, has been given the trees liberal charges of electricity and thus forced their growth. The experiments have been watched with interest by a large circle of neighbors and friends.

New Year's day was generally observed. There were many family reunions and other happy events. The stores closed and thus gave the clerks a chance to enjoy New Year's day.

It is reported that several Deerwood men fell off the water wagon on the first of the year and severely hurt their heads which swelled p considerably. Still the same thing happened in Brainerd too.

F. L. Pitt, in commenting on the really business, said he had a very good season last year and that he expected 1913 to be even better. There was growing up an increased demand for good acreage and for lake sites.

The Bay Lake Fruit Growers association will hold its annual election of officers on January 13th. In 1912 the association shipped 16,000 crates of strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, currants, etc., of a net value of $20,000. A potato warehouse has been built and many of the tubers have been stored in its capacious bins. F. L. Kinney is the manager of the fruit growers association and under his direction it has experienced a perfect flood of prosperity. One grower, John Erickson, made $800 from two acres of berries and also made a nice sum from his celery. The land was a clay soil on a side hill.

The Bay Lake Fruit Growers association spends from $1500 to $1800 for berry boxes. In February a contract will be placed with the berry box factory at Wahkon for 20,000 crates.

Charles Oberg went to St. Paul on Wednesday evening.

E. T. Buxton, Jr., and his little sister, Barbara, of St. Paul, are visiting the children of Dr. R. J. Sowell in Crosby.

H. C. Carlson of Superior, Wis., is the new operator on the first truck at the Deerwood depot. He has exchanged places with the former Deerwood operator, J. S. Spurrier and the latter goes to Duluth.

R. M. Adams went to Brainerd Thursday to attend to important business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCarville will spend several weeks at Hot Springs in Indiana.

Rev. Father Joseph L. Quillien, rector of St. Joseph's Catholic church, will leave on January 18 to visit his parents in France and will be absent several months. He will be accompanied by a former assistant of Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney of Brainerd.

Hugo Barthelme is a native of Ossian, Iowa, and accordingly took a great deal of interest in Al. Palzer, a former townsman who looked like a white hope but who was ground up in his mill with Luther McCarty.

Paul M. Hale is in Michigan with his full dress suit officiating as best man at a friend's wedding.

The Yeoman lodge dance on New Year's eve was one of the biggest dances ever given in Deerwood. It took place at Hilyar's hall. Supper was served at the Hotel Deerwood and the chef, William Guelker, nearly got nervous prostration when it looked as though the oysters would not be delivered in time for the big supper. They came just in the nick of time and the large crowd relished the dainties Mr. Guelker provided for the midnight feast. The music for the dance was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Wetzel.

Bob McMenemy and L. A. Bumgardner of St. Paul, were in Deerwood during the week and it is rumored they have secured contracts for railway construction.

Miss Florence Archibald visited in Deerwood Wednesday. She is teaching school at Woodford's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Opsahl of Brainerd, visited Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ness and other friends in the vicinity of Deerwood on New Year's day.

Capt. Crowley, of the Mesaba range visited the town of Deerwood and its vicinity and was highly pleased with the developments shown on the Cuyuna iron range.

JULESBURG TO THE FRONT

Jule Jamieson's Town on the Cuyuna Range is Dashing Ahead Like a Filly in Sweepstakes

Jule Jamieson, the father of Julesburg, was in town yesterday and when you mentioned Julesburg you touched the pet hobby of Jule.

"Julesburg," said Mr. Jamieson, as his chest expanded with an appreciable movement, "is the town that's coming ahead with a rush. Ten or twelve houses will be built in my subdivision this spring, all good homes and many of them rented before I've even got the foundation started."

"In 1912 quite a few cottages were built, but that is nothing compared to the building to be done in 1913. Times are very good on the range. Business is excellent and I have had to raise the flag pole on my establishment ten feet because other houses in my town were springing up so fast that they shut off the view of the flag in the day time and the electric light at night, both visible to the weary wayfarer when he journeys across the ice in one of the Crosby-Deerwood superheated, steam heated sled runner cabriolets.

"We towns on the range are building up so fast that we are getting real chummy. My front door will be only two blocks from the Cuyuna Northern depot to be built in Iron-ton. Two jumps from the corner lot of my subdivision is Lakeview addition to Crosby. If you get on the roof you can see Riverton and the hydraulic pumps squirting water like a big siphon into the sand bank and ripping out ore by the ton."

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Dispatch Reader

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical.

Brainerd residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. Charles Erickson, 1103 E. Oak street, Brainerd, Minn., says: "I suffered from disordered kidneys for two or three years. There were dull, heavy pains through the small of my back that kept me in a constant state of discomfort. I was also subject to headache and dizzy spells. Having been advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at H. P. Dunn's drug store and used them regularly. I now feel much better in every way. I am certain that all kidney sufferers will find relief through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given August 31, 1908.)

DEVELOPMENTS OF THE WEEK ON THE RANGE

may expend on drill work in 'trying to prove up a property.' It is hoped some arrangements can be made to get the Coates people interested on the south range.

E. C. Bane of Brainerd, has secured two more options to explore lands near Brainerd and west of Barrows. One is from Emil Johnson covering the southeast quarter of section 24, township 133, range 29, and the other from G. N. Grant and wife covering the west half of the northeast quarter of section 24, township 133, range 29. If an ore body of at least 250,000 tons of 45 percent or better ore is shown up on each tract within a year the owners will deed a half interest in the land to Mr. Bane and will also join in a lease, the terms of which give a minimum of 5,000 tons a year at 30 cents a ton royalty.

Articles of incorporation are out for a new company to develop the lands recently secured by option by Mr. Bane and situated west of and near Brainerd and Barrows. The name of the company is the Duluth-Brainerd Iron company and the directors are E. C. Bane, W. H. Denny, E. J. W. Donahue, Wm. Lynch, Chas. Hector, Otto J. Wentland and E. A. Lamb. They are taking over the 170 acre tracts to drill for a one-half interest as recently acquired by Mr. Bane. The company has made a contract for $10,000 worth of drilling and are expecting to use many times that amount in case they are fortunate in locating mineral. They are a close corporation and do not intend to sell shares at the present time. Duluth and Deerwood people have subscribed almost two-thirds of the amount for the exploration work and Brainerd people have taken the balance.

The Longyear company, of which P. W. Donovan is the range superintendent, is drilling in the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 13, township 45, range 30 east of Brainerd and the 80 acres situated in the east half of the northwest quarter of the same section, the land being owned by R. J. Harley, Con O'Brien and others of Brainerd and Cuyler Adams of Deerwood.

The Pennington mine west of Crosby and Ironton has recently received a large amount of machinery for its stripping operations. Besides the new Bucyrus steam shovel now on the ground another is expected daily. These shovels will have a five yard dipper. Twenty-one 16 yard cars have arrived and stripping will soon commence.

The Vermes-Cuyuna Mining and Development company will this month commence the exploration of its lands in lots 1, 2 and 3 comprising 108 acres in section 8, township 46, range 29. Many Brainerd people are interested in this company.

At the Barrows mine of the Virginia Ore Mining company the pump room at the 160 foot level was finished this Saturday. The room measures 65 feet in length, 16 feet in width and 14 feet in height. There have been some changes at the mine. Capt. Mathews and Surface

FATAL WRECK NEAR MOBILE

Two and Perhaps More Killed When Trestle Collapses.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 4.—Two men are known to have been killed and a score of persons injured when part of a New Orleans, Mobile and Chicago passenger train crashed through a trestle at Leaf, Miss.

It is reported that others may be dead in the wreckage.

The engine, of a new and heavy type, proved too heavy for the trestle and, followed by the baggage coach and the negro coach, plunged into the swamp beneath. Thirteen negroes in one car were seriously hurt.

Life Under Pressure.

The bed of the Arctic seas is very fine and plastic, while in the other zones of the Atlantic the bed is covered with reddish mud and an accumulation of the remains of animals that lived in the surface waters, died and slowly sank. The pressure of the sea increases about one atmosphere to every ten meters, so every additional hundred meters adds the pressure of ten atmospheres. When deep sea fishes are brought to the surface they lose their scales, their teguments become brittle, and they are so inflated by internal distension caused by the lessened pressure that in many cases they burst asunder.—Exchange.

SAWMILL PLANNED FOR DEERWOOD

If Timber is Sufficient It Will be Established by Messrs. Stoner and Miller

PROSPEROUS YEAR OF 1912

Engagement Announced of Miss Caroline Hall and James Tracy Hale, Jr.

Deerwood, Minn., January 2.—A sawmill in Deerwood is a possibility if sufficient timber can be located and supplied to keep the mill running. It will be established by Messrs. M. D. Stoner and A. W. Miller. If Deerwood cannot furnish enough timber, the promoters will build it in Cuyuna. The timber and lumber sawed will be used in large part by the Cuyuna Range Power company.

1912 has been a most prosperous year for Deerwood and its vicinity. In conversations with business men the consensus of opinion is that the year just past has dealt out prosperity in a generous manner to Deerwood.

Fred J. Thomas, of the Mahlum Lumber company, said: "We did a very good business. Ten residences were built in town, there was much repair work and in addition we have supplied lumber to Oreland for the Hotel Oreland and other structures and we sent carloads of lumber to the Cuyuna-Duluth mine."

Gust Oberg, secretary and treasurer of the Deerwood Clothing company, said: "Our business has been very good in the past year, fully justifying our faith in the business possibilities in Deerwood. We have had much trade from quite an area in the vicinity including Oreland and other points."

Attorney and Mrs. William C. White, of Milwaukee, Wis., on Christmas day announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Caroline Hall to Mr. James Tracy Hale, Jr., the son of Judge and Mrs. J. T. Hale of Deerwood. The wedding will take place in Deerwood in the early summer.

A. W. Miller has a lemon tree and an orange tree at his home and says the recent warm spell has caused his indoor orchard to grow blossoms guaranteeing a big yield. To stimulate the growth of his trees, Mr. Miller, who is quite an engineer and electrician, has been given the trees liberal charges of electricity and thus forced their growth. The experiments have been watched with interest by a large circle of neighbors and friends.

New Year's day was generally observed. There were many family reunions and other happy events. The stores closed and thus gave the clerks a chance to enjoy New Year's day.

It is reported that several Deerwood men fell off the water wagon on the first of the year and severely hurt their heads which swelled considerably. Still the same thing happened in Brainerd too.

F. L. Pitt, in commenting on the really business, said he had a very good season last year and that he expected 1913 to be even better. There was growing up an increased demand for good acreage and for lake sites.

The Bay Lake Fruit Growers association will hold its annual election of officers on January 13th. In 1912 the association shipped 16,000 crates of strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, currants, etc., of a net value of $20,000. A potato warehouse has been built and many of the tubers have been stored in its capacious bins. F. L. Kinney is the manager of the fruit growers association and under his direction it has experienced a perfect flood of prosperity. One grower, John Erickson, made $800 from two acres of berries and also made a nice sum from his celery. The land was a clay soil on a side hill.

The Bay Lake Fruit Growers association spends from $1500 to $1800 for berry boxes. In February a contract will be placed with the berry box factory at Wahkon for 20,000 crates.

Charles Oberg went to St. Paul on Wednesday evening. E. T. Buxton, Jr., and his little sister, Barbara, of St. Paul, are visiting the children of Dr. R. J. Sewall in Crosby.

H. C. Carlson of Superior, Wis., is the new operator on the first truck at the Deerwood depot. He has exchanged places with the former Deerwood operator, J. S. Spurrier and the latter goes to Duluth.

R. M. Adams went to Brainerd Thursday to attend to important business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCarty will spend several weeks at Hot Springs in Indiana.

Rev. Father Joseph L. Quillen, rector of St. Joseph's Catholic church, will leave on January 18 to visit his parents in France and will be absent several months. He will be accompanied by a former assistant of Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney of Brainerd.

Hugo Barthelme is a native of Osage, Iowa, and accordingly took a great deal of interest in Al. Palmer, a former townsman who looked like a white hope but who was ground up in his mill with Luther McCarty.

Paul M. Hale is in Michigan with his full dress suit officiating as best man at a friend's wedding.

The Yeoman lodge dance on New Year's eve was one of the biggest dances ever given in Deerwood. It took place at Hilyar's hall. Supper was served at the Hotel Deerwood and the chef, William Guelker, nearly got nervous prostration when it looked as though the oysters would not be delivered in time for the big supper. They came just in the nick of time and the large crowd relished the dainties Mr. Guelker provided for the midnight feast. The music for the dance was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Wetzel.

Bob McMenemy and L. A. Burdick of St. Paul, were in Deerwood during the week and it is rumored they have secured contracts for railway construction.

Miss Florence Archibald visited in Deerwood Wednesday. She is teaching school at Woolford's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Opsahl of Brainerd, visited Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ness and other friends in the vicinity of Deerwood on New Year's day.

Capt. Crowley, of the Mesaba range visited the town of Deerwood and its vicinity and was highly pleased with the developments shown on the Cuyuna iron range.

JULESBURG TO THE FRONT

Jule Jamieson's Town on the Cuyuna Range is Dashing Ahead Like a Filly in Sweepstakes

Jule Jamieson, the father of Julesburg, was in town yesterday and when you mentioned Julesburg you touched the pet hobby of Jule.

"Julesburg," said Mr. Jamieson, as his chest expanded with an appreciable movement, "is the town that's coming ahead with a rush. Ten or twelve houses will be built in my subdivision this spring, all good homes and many of them rented before I've even got the foundation started."

"In 1912 quite a few cottages were built, but that is nothing compared to the building to be done in 1913. Times are very good on the range. Business is excellent and I have had to raise the flag pole on my establishment ten feet because other houses in my town were springing up so fast that they shut off the view of the flag in the day time and the electric light at night, both visible to the weary wayfarer when he journeys across the ice in one of the Crosby-Deerwood superheated, steam heated sled runner cabriolets."

"We towns on the range are building up so fast that we are getting real chummy. My front door will be only two blocks from the Cuyuna Northern depot to be built in Iron-ton. Two jumps from the corner lot of my subdivision is Lakeview addition to Crosby. If you get on the roof you can see Riverton and the hydraulic pumps squirting water like a big siphon into the sand bank and ripping out ore by the ton."

Drives Off a Terror

The chief executioner of death in the winter and spring months is pneumonia. Its advance agents are colds and grip. In any attack by one of these maladies no time should be lost in taking the best medicine obtainable to drive it off. Countless thousands have found this to be Dr. King's New Discovery. "My husband believes it has kept him from having pneumonia three or four times," writes Mrs. George W. Place, Rawsonville, Vt. "and for coughs, colds and croup we have never found its equal." Guaranteed for all bronchial affections. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at H. P. Dunn's—Adv't.

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Dispatch Reader

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical.

Brainerd residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. Charles Erickson, 1103 E. Oak street, Brainerd, Minn., says: "I suffered from disordered kidneys for two or three years. There were dull, heavy pains through the small of my back that kept me in a constant state of discomfort. I was also subject to headache and dizzy spells. I have been advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at H. P. Dunn's drug store and used them regularly. I now feel much better in every way. I am certain that all kidney sufferers will find relief through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given August 31, 1908.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT

When Mrs. Erickson was interviewed at a later date she said: "I cheerfully confirm my former testimonial regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy can always be relied upon."

DEVELOPMENTS OF THE WEEK ON THE RANGE

may expend on drill work in trying to prove up a property." It is hoped some arrangements can be made to get the Coates people interested on the south range.

E. C. Bane of Brainerd, has secured two more options to explore lands near Brainerd and west of Barrows. One is from Emil Johnson covering the southeast quarter of section 24, township 133, range 29, and the other from G. N. Grant and wife covering the west half of the northeast quarter of section 24, township 133, range 29. If an ore body of at least 250,000 tons of 45 percent or better ore is shown up on each tract within a year the owners will deed a half interest in the land to Mr. Bane and will also join in a lease, the terms of which will be a minimum of 5,000 tons a year at 30 cents a ton royalty.

Articles of incorporation are out for a new company to develop the lands recently secured by option by Mr. Bane and situated west of and near Brainerd and Barrows. The name of the company is the Duluth-Brainerd Iron company and the directors are E. C. Bane, W. H. Denny, E. J. W. Donahue, Wm. Lynch, Chas. Hector, Otto J. Wentland and E. A. Lamb. They are taking over the 17 forty acre tracts to drill for a one-half interest as recently acquired by Mr. Bane. The company has made a contract for $10,000 worth of drilling and are expecting to use many times that amount in case they are fortunate in locating mineral. They are a close corporation and do not intend to sell shares at the present time. Duluth and Deerwood people have subscribed almost two-thirds of the amount for the exploration work and Brainerd people have taken the balance.

The Longyear company, of which P. W. Donovan is the range superintendent, is drilling in the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 13, township 45, range 30 east of Brainerd and the 80 acres situated in the east half of the north-west quarter of the same section, the land being owned by R. J. Harley, Con O'Brien and others of Brainerd and Cuyler Adams of Deerwood.

The Pennington mine west of Crosby and Iron-ton has recently received a large amount of machinery for its stripping operations. Besides the new Bucyrus steam shovel now on the ground another is expected daily. These shovels will have a five yard dipper. Twenty-one 16 yard cars have arrived and stripping will soon commence.

The Vermes-Cuyuna Mining and Development company will this month commence the exploration of its lands in lots 1, 2 and 3 comprising 108 acres in section 8, township 46, range 29. Many Brainerd people are interested in this company.

At the Barrows mine of the Virginia Ore Mining company the pump room at the 160 foot level was finished this Saturday. The room measures 65 feet in length, 16 feet in width and 14 feet in height. There have been some changes at the mine. Capt. Mathews and Surface

The Girl With—Beautiful Hair

Attracts Attention Everywhere

There is one sure and certain way for every woman to have beautiful hair, and that is to give it intelligent care, which includes the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

This remarkable preparation kills absolutely the dandruff germ, eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from falling.

The prophylactic action of Herpicide keeps the hair free from disease, and with the scalp sweet and clean a natural hair growth is inevitable.

Herpicide hair sanitizes with health and vigor, light and luster, produced only by the well-known scalp and hair dressing, Newbro's Herpicide.

Foreman Parmalee was made such a good record in opening up the mine have been transferred to Wakefield, Mich., where the Virginia Ore Mining company has another mine. Capt. Tallon of Biwabik, is the new mining captain at the Barrows mine. Work will soon be commenced installing the 3,000 gallon pump in the pump room.

FATAL WRECK NEAR MOBILE

Two and Perhaps More Killed When Trestle Collapses.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 4.—Two men are known to have been killed and a score of persons injured when part of a New Orleans, Mobile and Chicago passenger train crashed through a trestle at Leaf, Miss.

It is reported that others may be dead in the wreckage. The engine, of a new and heavy type, proved too heavy for the trestle and, followed by the baggage coach and the negro coach, plunged into the swamp beneath. Thirteen negroes in one car were seriously hurt.

Life Under Pressure.

The bed of the Arctic seas is very fine and plastic, while in the other zones of the Atlantic the bed is covered with reddish mud and an accumulation of the remains of animals that lived in the surface waters, died and slowly sank. The pressure of the sea increases about one atmosphere to every ten meters, so every additional hundred meters adds the pressure of ten atmospheres. When deep sea fishes are brought to the surface they lose their scales, their teguments become brittle, and they are so inflated by internal distension caused by the lessened pressure that in many cases they burst asunder.—Exchange.

Five-Passenger Touring Car

How to Save Money in a Car

First of all, look beyond the present—consider the future and the probable decrease in your car's valuation.

A one-season-car is a poor investment no matter how attractive it may look.

A car that renders adequate service for a season or two may earn its keep—

But the good-buy is the car that has such perfect wearing qualities and unimpeachable reputation that it will last for several seasons' service and still bring a high cash value.

Such a car is the National. Its longevity and ahead-of-the-times design guarantees profitable returns upon your investment.

Long stroke motor (4 1/2 x 6), left-side drive, center control. Gray & Davis electric starter, Gray & Davis dynamo electric lighting system, Bosch double dual magnet, multiple jet carburetor, 12 inch Turkish upholstery, tire pump integral part of motor, 128-inch wheelbase, Hoffer speedometer, full floating rear axle, concealed baggage compartments, tire carriers, full heavy nickel trimmings, powerful brakes, perfect oiling system, robe rail, foot rest, foot mat in running board, concealed tool box, electric horn, top, curtains, Tru-fault-Hartford Shock Absorbers in rear, adjustable ventilating and rain vision windshield.
